Virginia: In the circuit Court of Lee County. At 2nd Oct Rules, 1895.
To the Hon. W. T. Miller, Judge of said Court: Humbly complaining, sheweth unto your honor your orators, E. C. Courtney and ~~partners~~ ^{doing business under the firm name} John Surgenor, that on the 4th day of September, 1895, they obtained ~~before~~ ^{a judgment} H. C.
Joslyn, a Justice of Lee County, Va, for the sum of $69⁰², with interest thereon, at six per centum per annum, from the 1st day of January, 1895, till paid, and 50 cents Costs, Subject to a credit of $32²⁵ on the 1st day of January 1895, against the "Ocoonita Road Company" a body corporate under the laws of Virginia.

Now your orators further state, that the said Ocoonita Road Company is seized and possessed in fee simple of a certain tract or parcel of land lying and being in the said County, containing about Ten acres, more or less, known as the Ocoonita Road, which leads from the Lick house near the Station Ocoonita on the Louisville and Nashville Rail Road across the Poor valley ridge to the Sugar run road near the dwelling house of L. J. Hambley, of John Surgenor and E. C. Courtney and that they are advised that their judgment is a lien, under the Statute Law of Virginia, on the said real estate — that the rents and profits of the said real estate will not satisfy the said judgment in five years.

In tender consideration whereof, forasmuch as your orators are un-edilers in the premises, save by the aid of a Court of equity, where matters of this kind are alone and properly cognizable, your orators pray that the said "Ocoona Road Company" be made party defendants to this bill, and required to answer this bill but not upon oath that being waived; that the said real estate, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be sold to satisfy your orators' judgments, and that your honor will grant unto your orators such further and general relief as may be consistent with equity and the case requires.

May it please, V C., and your orators will ever pray, V C.
